INTRODUCTION.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:—

GOD in his great mercy has permitted me to spend among you one happy year of labor in the Master's cause. Coming to you under an impulse which I hardly knew how to explain at the time, but which I now think to have been providential, and with no intention of staying longer than one year. I have found my field of labor so hopeful as to readily accede to your request to remain longer. God has given us peace and moderate prosperity, pleasant and profitable seasons of worship, a somewhat increased spirituality, and financial success. It is the opinion of many, in which I fully concur, that a brighter day is dawning on our little society. We have abundant cause for hope and renewed consecration to the work of Christ. There is no pleasanter or more important field of Christian labor than that which our Church affords.

In submitting to you our YEAR BOOK, I ask for it two favors :

- (1). That you will carefully study it.
- (2). That you will keep it for constant reference.

The Officiary, Standing Committees, &c., are for the year beginning April 1st, 1878, and ending March 31st, 1879,—while the Statistics are from April 1st, 1877, to March 31st, 1878.

Section I will give you the Church Officers, Standing Committees, Societies, etc.

Section II will give you the entire statistics of all kinds connected with the charge.

Section III, a list of the members and probationers.

As you study this little Annual, dear brethren and sisters, may I not hope and believe that you will resolve, by the grace of God, to make the year on which He has permitted us to enter, more fruitful in results to the glory of His name than was the last. It may be our last!

Your brother and fellow-laborer,

A. McKEOWN,

Lasell Street.

TO THE CONGREGATION OF CENTENARY CHURCH:—

Dear Friends,—Our lot has been cast together for Christian labor. We are charged with the delightful responsibility of maintaining the worship of God, with all the hallowing and saving influences flowing therefrom, in the community in which we dwell—the home of our children and friends. Will you not allow me, as your minister and pastor, to most solemnly and earnestly urge upon you three things.

1. To live near to God, so that He may own us and bless us, both as individuals and as a society, to the good of many souls in this place.

2. To be present, as far as possible, at every regular religious service.

3. To contribute regularly, as liberally as your means will allow, to the support of Christ's cause.

All arrearages of floating debt have been paid.

To meet the entire expenses of the current year will require the not very large sum of twenty-one hundred dollars. (See page 16.)

To raise this sum, the voluntary system of WEEKLY OFFERINGS, which worked so well last year, has been adopted.

We have no pew rents. The seats in the entire Church are free—families or individuals selecting such as they prefer (it is desirable that they should occupy the same ones each Sabbath), and paying therefor just what they please to give, regularly, in the weekly offering each Lord's day. Envelopes for weekly offering may be obtained on application of the treasurer, Mr. H. P. Mann.

It is earnestly desired that all should come into this arrangement, that the Stewards may know just what they can rely on. If each gives what he or she can, none need be burdened. "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ." Remember, it is for the Master's sake.

And when we shall have maintained His cause on the earth, and worshipped rejoicingly in His earthly courts, may we be welcomed at last to His presence in the "house not made with hands."

Your affectionate pastor;

A. McKEOWN.

NOTICE.

A FINE opportunity is offered to those who may desire to improve their singing, to obtain the instruction of Dr. Tourjée, by uniting with the Chorus in Centenary Church, of which he is the director.

The conditions of membership are :

(1.) Ability to read music, and (2) a regular attendance at rehearsals, on Saturday evenings, and worship on the Lord's Days.

Names may be handed to the Director of the Chorus on Saturday evenings.
